4. APPLICATION OF THE PRIVACY STATEMENT

This privacy statement applies to personal information that we have in our possession or under our control, and information that we collect or receive from or about you (for example, when you obtain therapy services at the practice, through our website or are referred to the practice by a surgeon). It stipulates, amongst others, how we collect your personal information, the type of information collected, why that information is collected, the circumstances under which that information will be shared with others, the security measures that we have implemented to protect your personal information and your right to obtain access to and correct the information in our possession or under our control.

5. OUR COMMITMENT

We understand that your personal information is important to you and that you may be anxious about disclosing it. Your privacy and the security of your information are just as important to us, and we therefore want to make sure you understand how your information will be processed. We acknowledge that we are required by law to keep your personal information confidential and secure. We are committed to conducting our practice in accordance with the law in order to ensure that the confidentiality of your personal information is protected and maintained. We take this commitment to look after your personal information seriously, and we have implemented a number of processes to ensure that your personal information is used in the right way.

6. PRIVACY PRINCIPLES

We apply the following principles in order to protect your privacy:

- No more personal information than is absolutely necessary is collected from you;
- Your personal information is only used for the purposes specified in this privacy statement, unless you are advised otherwise;
- Your personal information is not kept by us (on site) if it is no longer needed; and
- Other than as specified in this privacy statement or otherwise agreed with you, we do not share your personal information with third parties.

7. WHEN YOU PROVIDE INFORMATION ABOUT ANOTHER INDIVIDUAL / ENTITY

You must make sure that if you provide personal information about any individual or entity to us, you are legally allowed to do so. (e.g. with their consent). We will accept that you are acting lawfully. You should make sure that they are familiar with this privacy statement and understand how we will use and disclose their information.

8. COLLECTION OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We obtain personal information directly from you when you become a patient or an employee or when you provide information to us. Information may also be collected from another source, depending on the circumstances, such as your next-of-kin, another health care practitioner or medical practitioner involved in your care or treatment, the hospital / facility admission form, a credit bureau, a public record or when you make information publicly available. The information that we request from you is necessary to provide you with physiotherapy services or to manage the professional relationship with your surgeon or treating doctor that has referred you to us. Information is generally collected for the purposes as set out below.

12. DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION OF DATA SUBJECTS (OTHER THAN PATIENTS)

Relevant personal information of data subjects (other than patients) will be shared, as may be necessary in the circumstances, with our professional advisers, relevant employees (on a need-to-know basis), our auditors / accountants, regulators, relevant public and private bodies, law enforcement structures, a purchaser of the practice, if applicable. The information will only be shared as permitted in terms of the law or as otherwise agreed to with such a person.

13. LINKS TO SOCIAL NETWORKING SERVICES

We use social networking services such as WhatsApp and our website (www.wilmeriejacobsphysio.co.za) to communicate with the public about our services. When you communicate with us through these services, the relevant social networking service may collect your personal information for its own purposes. These services, like WhatsApp, have their own privacy policies, which are independent of this privacy statement. The practice's website is covered by this privacy statement and managed in terms thereof.

14. CONSENT

If you provide consent to us to process your personal information, you may withdraw your consent at any time. This does not affect the processing of personal information that has already occurred. If you withdraw consent, your personal information will only be processed as provided for in the law, and, if the circumstances make it reasonable and lawful for us to do so, we may terminate our relationship with you.

15. OBJECTION TO PROCESSING

In certain instances, you may object to the processing of your personal information if it is reasonable to do so, unless we may do so in terms of the law. This must occur on the form prescribed by POPIA. This does not affect personal information already processed. If you object and we agree with your objection, your personal information will only be processed as provided for in the law. If you exercise this right and, if the circumstances make it reasonable and lawful for us to do so, we may terminate our relationship with you.

16. RECORD KEEPING

We maintain records of all your personal information for as long as it is necessary for lawful purposes in accordance with the law, including to fulfil your requests, provide services to you, comply with legal obligations, resolve disputes, enforce agreements and as proof. These records are held in electronic format in addition to hard copy. The records kept in electronic format are kept with a third party, and not on the premises of the practice. We may also retain your personal information for historical, statistical and research purposes, subject to the provisions of the law.

17. SENDING INFORMATION ACROSS THE BORDERS OF SOUTH AFRICA

We process and store your information in records within the borders of South Africa, including in 'clouds', which comply with legal requirements to ensure the protection of your privacy. If we must provide your personal information to any third party in another country, we will obtain your prior consent unless such information may be lawfully provided to that third party.

18. SECURITY OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We are committed to ensuring the security of your personal information in order to protect it from unauthorized processing and access as well as loss, damage or unauthorized destruction. There are also inherent risks in the electronic transfer and storage of personal information. We have implemented and continually review and update our information protection measures to ensure the security, integrity and confidentiality of your information in accordance with industry best practices. These measures include the physical securing of the offices where information is held, the locking of cabinets with physical records, password control to access electronic records, which passwords are regularly changed, off-site data back-ups and stringent policies in respect of electronic record storage and

In addition, only those employees and service providers that require access to your information to discharge their functions and to render services to us are granted access to your information and only if they have concluded agreements with or provided undertakings regarding the implementation of appropriate security measures, maintaining confidentiality and processing the information only for the agreed purposes.

19. SECURITY BREACHES

We will inform you and the Information Regulator if any person has unlawfully obtained access to your personal information, subject to the provisions of the law.

20. RIGHT TO ACCESS YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

You have the right to have access to your personal information subject to restrictions imposed in legislation. You may request access to your information in our possession or under our control and information of third parties to whom we supplied that information. If you wish to exercise this right, please complete and submit the prescribed form to the Information Officer. Costs may be applicable to such a request. The relevant form and costs can be obtained from the Information Officer.

21. ACCURACY OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

It is important that we always have accurate information about you on record as it could impact on communication with you and your health, if applicable. You must therefore inform us as soon as any of your information has changed. You may also request that we correct or delete any information. Such a request must be made in writing on the prescribed form to the Information Officer and must provide sufficient detail to identify the information and the correction or deletion required. Information will only be corrected or deleted if we agree that the information is incorrect or should be deleted. It may not be possible to delete all of the information if there is a legal basis to retain the information. However, please contact the Information Officer to discuss how we can assist you with your request. If we correct any information and the corrected information will impact on any decision made or to be made

22. MARKETING OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

If you have provided consent, we may occasionally inform you, electronically or otherwise, about supplementary products and/or services offered by us that may be useful or beneficial to you. You may at any time withdraw your consent and opt out from receiving such information.

23. CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY STATEMENT

We reserve the right in our sole and absolute discretion to revise or supplement this privacy statement from time to time to reflect, amongst others, any changes in our business or the law. We will publish the updated privacy statement on our website at www.wilmeriejacobsphysio.co.za. It will also be available on request. Any revised version of the statement will be effective as of the date of posting on the website, so you should always make sure you are satisfied with any changes before continuing to use our services. If we make a material change to this statement, you will be notified with a notice on the website and at the practice office(s) that our privacy practices have changed, and you will obtain a link/access to the new statement. In the event that we make material change to how we use your personal information, we will provide you with an opportunity to opt out of such new or different use. If you have any questions concerning this statement please contact our Information Officer.

24. CONCERNS AND COMPLAINTS ABOUT THE PROCESSING OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

All enquiries, requests or concerns regarding this statement or relating to the processing of your personal information should be addressed to the Information Officer. If you believe that we process your personal information contrary to this statement or in contravention of the
